EXPLORING

The logo for 'Exploring Pennsylvania Boroughs' features the word 'EXPLORING' in a large, black, serif font. The letter 'O' is replaced by a circular icon containing a compass rose. Below 'EXPLORING' is a horizontal yellow bar, and underneath that bar, the words 'PENNSYLVANIA BOROUGH'S' are written in a smaller, brown, serif font.

Exploring Pennsylvania Boroughs: Waynesboro Borough
Airs on PCN on Thursday, November 1, at 7:30 pm

(Waynesboro, PA) - Waynesboro is located in Southern Franklin County, only a stone's throw from the Maryland border. The bedroom community's culture and charm is reflected in the many businesses, restaurants, and community organizations.

Antique enthusiasts come from far and wide to hunt for treasures at James and Jess' House of Goods. Step back in time with a visit to the Renfrew Museum and Park, a restored farmstead full of period artifacts and a collection of John Bell pottery. Galleries and music venues supported by the Arts Alliance of Greater Waynesboro are lively on Friday nights with performances by local musicians. On Saturday mornings, visit the Farmers Market, hosted by Main Street Waynesboro Inc. The Main Street program keeps Waynesboro busy by throwing events like Wizarding Fest, which transforms Main Street Park into a magical alley.

Refuel with a coffee from Brio, a coffee bar brewing in a former bank building. Folks with a sweet tooth can visit two local candy stores, including Zoe's Chocolates, who creates their confections on site. Grab a scoop of ice cream at Antietam Dairy. Enjoy over 60 flavors of tea brewing at TranquilaTEA, charming a tea room and gift shop. Dine at Sapporo Japanese restaurant, which boasts the best Japanese and Korean food in the area. Catch a flick at the Waynesboro Theatre, which was renovated thanks to community efforts. Waynesboro's charm is evident on your first visit. Explore what makes them special on this tour of Waynesboro.

ABOUT EXPLORING PENNSYLVANIA BOROUGH'S

Exploring Pennsylvania Boroughs is a partnership between PCN and the Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs (PSAB). Each month, PCN travels to a new borough to highlight the industry and culture these communities contribute to the commonwealth. Exploring Pennsylvania Boroughs airs the first Thursday of every month at 7:30 pm on PCN on cable and using the PCN app.
